

The Last Present

Have you ever wondered how Santa's Toy Factory can make so many presents? Well I, Raina the Elf can tell you. I have been working in Santa's Toy Factory for over 5 years. But before I tell you my wild adventures in Santa's Toy Factory, let me introduce myself first. My name is Raina and I am 6 years old, I have a pet Gingerbread called Ginger. He is 3 years old. My favourite job in Santa's Toy Factory is wrapping the presents. ^{Use other sentence starter} ~~My favourite treats~~ ^{are} I love the Candy-canes and Chocolates. A lot of elves are really jealous of me because I'm Santa's ^{word choice! too many 'favourite'} favourite Elf. Krista, the Naughty Elf, is always ^{word choice} jealous of me no matter what I do. The best ^{envious} thing about being Santa's ^{hardworking} favourite Elf is that you get a special gold badge and it has your name printed on it. I am really scared of Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer because I do not like him rubbing my hair. Anyway, now I am going to tell you ~~one~~ my most horrifying adventures in Santa's Toy Factory...

One bright, sunny, rambling morning the Elves were having a "Break-meeting." In the language of the Elves "Break-meeting" ^{a scrumptious} ^{good word!} means having ^{who? be specific.} ~~Breakfast~~ while also having a meeting. I sat quietly down in a ruby red coloured chair as Santa came around the tables to give ~~them~~ ^{the Elves} their Breakfasts. For my Breakfast I got 4 short burnt sausages, 2 sunny-side-up eggs and 1 half burnt ham.

"Enjoy your breakfast everyone!!"

houted Santa with a cheerful smile on his face. He gobbled his breakfast as fast as he could, I started to eat as I listened to Santa.

you already had that.

By now I had finished my breakfast and ^{had} wiped my mouth. I left the "Elf Cafeteria" and took the lift down to the "Toy Making Station". There in front of me was a machine.

The machine was covered in gold this Automatic Gift Wrapper will wrap your

the present to my delicate sleigh." ~~clarified~~
Santa. ^{use some adverbs!} clarified patiently.

As time passed by I was getting the hang of the Automatic Gift Wrapper until one day, the Naughty Elf came by...

"What's ^⑤ that?" Krista inquired.

"It's an Automatic Gift Wrapper."

^{good word! :)}

"Can it wrap Elves?" ^{asked} ~~quizzed~~

"Probably." I responded. I felt weird talking to Krista the Naughty Elf because I've never spoken to her before. "Why did you ask?"

Then suddenly, ↗
"Aaaaagh!!!" I bawled in a high pitched voice.

"Hahaha" cackled Krista the Naughty Elf. "I've got you this time! Now I can be Santa's favourite Elf!! Hahaha!!"
snorted Krista.

The lift door opened and out came Santa.

"Where is Raina?" probed Santa. "I have been looking for her." ~~said~~ Santa ^{had} with a ~~Santa~~ bellowed. "Who put Raina into the Santa. Nobody answered. By now Raina was wrapped up as a present and already got delivered to Santa's Sleigh. "Cue up," Santa shrieked. "Right, since nobody showed up I will check the security camera!" shouted Santa.

When Santa came out, every Elf was waiting for the news. Krista, the Naughty

Elf felt ^{very} hopeless.

* Santa was very worried and also very curious about who put Raina in the Automatic Gift Wrapper Machine.

* His sleigh stopped by the roof as Santa slid through the chimney. When Santa arrived at Sophia's House he saw Raina's head moving from side to side in the green present.
